

Mon Courtier Energie Groupe simplifies energy management for professionals with a dedicated interface

- Simplified access to consumption data, invoicing, and detailed energy asset tracking
- Strengthening proximity, trust, and customer experience

Bordeaux, March 3, 2025, at 07:00 am CET – Mon Courtier Energie Groupe (ISIN code: FR001400H3A0 - Ticker: ALMCE), a B2B energy brokerage company, today announces the launch of its new customer portal.

Committed to supporting businesses and professionals in managing their energy contracts, Mon Courtier Energie Groupe provides its clients with a dedicated platform. Designed to meet the specific needs of professionals, this intuitive and secure tool offers simplified access to consumption data, invoicing, and detailed tracking of energy assets. This new platform further strengthens the privileged relationship between Mon Courtier Energie Groupe's teams and their clients.

Arnaud Houques, Sales Director of Mon Courtier Energie Groupe, states: "At Mon Courtier Energie Groupe, our mission has always been to simplify energy management for our clients. Today, we are proud to introduce our new customer portal, designed to provide an intuitive and high-performance experience. The MCE customer portal empowers professionals with the freedom to monitor, adjust, and optimize their energy usage in just a few clicks. We are offering our clients a streamlined and personalized approach to managing their energy consumption. It is also a strategic advancement in support of energy transition and business competitiveness. With this innovative platform, we are leveraging technology to transform energy from a constraint into a true driver of performance and optimization."

Easy access to key data with an intuitive interface

Available 24/7, the customer portal offers a wide range of features:

- Real-time consumption monitoring with detailed analyses via a dynamic dashboard,
- Personalized reports to optimize energy expenditures,
- Price alerts in case of exceeding or not reaching a predefined threshold.

It also simplifies the management of contracts and invoices, allowing users to view, download, and store these documents in just a few clicks. A dedicated and responsive support service is directly accessible for personalized assistance and real-time request tracking.

With a modern and intuitive interface equipped with optimized features, clients will be able to manage their data autonomously through a centralized platform that provides all key information. They will be able to easily identify areas for optimization through powerful analysis tools and benefit from direct access to experts for any inquiries or support needs.

Additional features are currently being deployed.

Enhanced support for a privileged customer relationship

This platform strengthens the close relationship between clients and their dedicated broker or account manager, ensuring efficient request tracking. It also represents a time-saving tool for businesses by simplifying access to essential data and improving daily energy management.

The customer portal is now available

For eligible clients, personal account access is now available via the website: www.moncourtierenergie.com. The portal will gradually be rolled out to all clients.
